OCTOBER 2002

FINALE DESSERTERIE & BAKERY
OPEN IN HARVARD SQUARE

BOSTON--Finale, Boston's upscale dessert restaurant, announced the opening of its second location in Harvard Square. The long-awaited Cambridge, Massachusetts, location features a full service desserterie and a small Finale Bakery for carry-out cakes, pastries and cookies.

Other features include:

- outdoor patio seating
- signature overhead demonstration mirrors in the dining room
- take-out bakery for cakes, pastries and cookies
- sensational dessert menu
- light dinner menu
- private dining room
- full liquor menu (including ports, dessert wines, single malts, cognacs, and other after-dinner drinks)
- specialty lunch menu
- lunch catering menu

"Harvard is where the idea for our upscale desserterie was born. It seems fitting to build our second location here," explained Paul Conforti.

Finale Harvard Square is located at 30 Dunster Street at the corner of Mount Auburn in the Holyoke Center, across the street from John Harvard's Brew House.

The Harvard Business School developed concept opened it's first location in July of 1998 in Boston's Back Bay. It is a leading branded specialty restaurant featuring fine dining styled desserts, including the company's signature Molten Chocolate Cake. Finale has received recognition from the Food Network, Bon Appetit, and Newsweek, among others, for its award-winning desserts and unique concept.
