If this past weekend of put-you-in-a-great-mood weather didn't put a spring in your step, we've got another option for you. Do some spring cleaning for your hair and get coiffed for a good cause all day today at Salon Marc Harris (125 Broad Street, Boston, 617.443.8633) as the salon hosts a cut-a-thon to honor the memory of a late bubbly and beloved styling assistant. Book an appointment between 12 and 7 p.m. for a discounted haircut ($50 for women; $25 for men), and the proceeds will benefit the Debra Davis Scholarship Fund. Mission accomplished. For appointments, call 617.443.8633 and mention the cut-a-thon.

Long hours at the office mean a few things: stress, no food, and all the caffeinated nonsense Starbucks can throw your way. All the stomach growls you've been masking with obnoxiously loud coughs? That's your body trying to tell you to eat something. Take the quick T ride to Finale (One Columbus Avenue, Boston, 617.423.3184) and shut your tummy up with more than just dessert. Their lunch duo (or trio) special features hearty sandwiches and salads (standouts include an apple mango sandwich with goat cheese and walnuts, plus a pear almond salad) along with two (or three) of the following: chips, cookie, or a soda. Have a full lunch for anywhere between $8.99 and $10.99, and then hurry back to the office. Can't miss too much of that water-cooler gossip.
